

Sunquest

During the last few days, consumers might be wondering who they can trust when it comes to choosing a vacation company. With Sunquest, we are here to stay and we will continue to make your holiday dreams come true. Here's a little about who we are...

TRUST US

We are backed by a strong company.

Sunquest is part of the world's second largest leisure travel company, which operates in 21 markets, moves over 23 million people per year, has revenues of approximately $16 billion, and an employee base of 31,000 people. Last year, it reported profits of over $700 million, which is 50% higher than the year prior.

In Canada, Sunquest's sister companies include: ALBATours, Holiday House, Encore CruiseEscapes, BelAir Travel, Last Minute Club and Fun Sun Vacations, and together our revenues are close to $2 billion, we have over 1,100 employees, and 1.6 million passengers every year.

We have been named 'Best in Class' by consumers and travel agents alike.

We are members of TICO (Travel Industry Council of Ontario) and pay into the fund to protect Ontario consumers from industry failures. We are also members of similar organizations in British Columbia and Quebec.

We make our customers, and their vacation dreams, our priority.

We have won the Consumers' Choice Award for Best Travel Wholesaler for 8 years in a row. We have won the Agents' Choice Award for Best Tour Operator for 3 years in a row.
